COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, OCT. 29, 1919.

NUMBER 1

BIG DEMOCRATIC GATHERING.

Gov. Jas. D. Black Visits Columbia and is Given a Rousing Reception.

LOCAL DEMOCRATS HIGHLY DELIGHTED.

Last Wednesday Columbia swarmed with Democrats, their arrival being the occasion of Gov. Black's speaking appointment. Early in the morning they commenced to arrive, and by the noon hour humanity was at work like bees in a gum.

Gov. Black came from Campbellsburg to this place, accompanied by Mr. J. R. Garnett, Democratic candidate for the State Senate, and three reporters, representing the Courier-Journal, Evening Post and Evening Times.

The party was met with the Cane Valley Band, near the Cheatham Bridge, and a long train of Columbians and Adair county citizens, ladies and gentlemen in automobiles, fifty-two in number, escorted the Governor to the Jeffries Hotel. Here he was met by a reception committee composed of elderly gentlemen, and for three quarters of an hour the Governor was kept busy shaking hands with his supporters.

The representatives of the daily papers, who have been going over the State, reporting, informed The Adair County News that it was the greatest political demonstration that had come under their observation since the campaign opened.

The crowd was so large that Governor Black was asked to speak in the open, but his throat was in such condition that he could not comply. He stated that he was making two speeches a day, and to speak out would utterly ruin his voice.

The hour for the address was 1 o'clock, and by 12:30 the court-auditorium was well-filled. The bell was rung at the appointed hour, and in ten minutes all the seats in the courtroom was taken and the side rooms filled, and every place where a man could stand was filled.

At the sound of the gavel every body became quiet and the program started.

Mr. G. R. Reed, Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, in a very appropriate address, thanked the audience for turning out in such large numbers; that he believed he knew the meaning of their presence, and that himself and the other members of the committee appreciated their coming. He closed by introducing Mr. J. R. Garnett, Democratic candidate for the State Senate, who, in a short but splendid speech, introduced Gov. Black.

When the Governor arose he was greeted by tremendous applause. He spoke about one hour and twenty minutes, reciting the many achievements accomplished by the Democratic party, State and national. His eulogy on President Wilson was beautiful, and at each mention of the President's name there was prolonged applause.

He stated, that if elected, he would give the people a clean administration, and would correct any evil that should come to his knowledge. He spoke of Judge Bethurum's offer to withdraw Mr. Morrow from the race if it could be proven that he (Morrow) wrote a letter to the Department, protesting against the pardoning of the Grant county tobacco growers. He said that a charge had been proven that such a letter had been written by Morrow, but that he did not ask Judge Bethurum to withdraw him from the race; but he believed that the people would withdraw him the 4th day of November.

All the statements that Mr. Morrow has been making about the waste of money at Frankfort, the tax question, school books, Bingham inheritance tax, etc., etc., were taken up and shown that the declarations of the Republican candidate for Governor were

Don't Forget.

To go to the polls Nov. 4 and vote for the Prohibition amendment to our State Constitution. Call for the extra ballot and vote "Yes" if you want our grand old State forever free from the terrible curse that has already cost us too dearly. If you fail to vote for this amendment you may live to regret it. Do your bit by casting this vote, and help to save some mother's boy from a drunkard's grave.

falacies and full of dead men's bones.

Mr. W. T. Loy, who lives in the Fairplay country, a good Democrat, became so enthused while the Governor was telling what he expected to do in the event of his election, hallooed loudly, "You are the man we want," and he voiced the sentiment of the audience.

Taking the address altogether, it was one of the most captivating speeches delivered here for many a day.

The Lindsey-Wilson could not attend the speaking, but the student body and some of the teachers marched down to the Christian Church and stood in line with flags waving, while the Governor passed with uncovered head.

Very Important.

That every voter say "Yes" to the Prohibition amendment to our State Constitution next Tuesday. Call for the extra ballot and cast it in. If we fail to vote we vote against it. If we vote against it we set at naught the cry of every mother and daughter, every noble son

Singed,
Pastors of County.

Honors Go to Columbia.

Last Friday and Saturday night there were four lively basket ball games played in the High School Gym, this place. Friday night the games closed as follows:

Columbia Athletic Club vs Mt. Vernon High School, the score standing 24 to 10 in favor of the local Athletics. Graded School, same night vs Brodhead High School, the score standing 39 to 13, in favor of the Graders.

Saturday night the Graded School played Mt. Vernon, the score standing 20 to 14. Same night the Athletics played Brodhead, the score standing 29 to 6 in favor of the Athletics.

The games were the cleanest ever played in Columbia, the visiting teams acquitted themselves in a most admirable manner, as to deportment.

Jersey Heifers.

Next Monday, county court. I will offer 10 Jersey cows for sale to the highest bidder. This will be the last chance for a person to buy a superior milch cow.

J. B. Barbee.

Weddings.

Last Thursday, the 23 inst., Miss Ethel Moore, a popular teacher of Adair county, and Mr. L. E. McWhorter, of Manassville Taylor county, were married, on the pike, this side of Green river bridge, by Eld. Z. T. Williams.

For Sale.

A Clinton Upright Piano.

The remains of Mrs. Ernest Garvin were disinterred here last Monday and removed to Brookside cemetery, Campbellsburg. Mr. M. W. Wallace, was the undertaker.

Last Sunday afternoon, Miss Ruth Ethel Epperson and Mr. U. S. Cravens were married at the home of Eld. Z. T. Williams, this city. The above named couples have the best wishes of their many friends.

Remember that Adair has a candidate for the State Senate in the person of Mr. J. R. Garnett. His home county should give him a large vote.

An Immense Crowd.

We have been attending the opening of the Russell circuit courts for a number of years, but the largest crowd we ever saw in Jamestown was last Monday week. Speaking, and the lot sale aided in drawing the crowd, and by the noon hour the public square and the streets swarmed with people.

Judge Cress, of Monticello, was the first speaker. He opened for the Democrats about 10:30 and spoke until the dinner hour, making a strong argument in support of the State ticket.

In the afternoon, Hon. Matt Cohen, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, made a thrilling speech, enthusing his Democratic friends. He blistered Mr. Morrow, the Republican candidate for Governor for going over the State, making unwarranted statements, and defended his record as Commissioner of Agriculture. The speech evidently had a good effect. One Republican, who lives in Jamestown, told us that he was supporting Gov. Black; that he never in his life voted for a Morrow and that he never would. At the conclusion of Mr. Cohen's address Congressman Robison took the stand and told the people of Russell what he was doing in Congress to secure appropriations for the improvement of the Upper Cumberland. He also spoke for his State ticket.

The lot sale, put on by the Henry Realty Company, was a success. Eleven acres, lying to the left of the pike as you enter Jamestown, were laid off into small building lots and they were all sold. The highest price paid for a single lot was $175. The company paid $2,800 for the land, and in disposing of it in the manner as above stated, it made quite a sum of money. This sale may be the cause of many dwellings going up in Jamestown.

An electric plant and concrete walks will put this old historic town on the highway to lasting prosperity.

The Lot Sale.

The Henry Realty Company put on its lot sale, in this place, last Monday. About ten acres of land had been purchased of Mr. N. M. Tutt, near the Graded School building, and it was laid off in lots, 30 by 120 deep, making a few over 100 lots. They were all sold to different parties. Mr. Tutt buying one-half of them. The lots averaged about $30 each.

The Cane Valley band rendered music as the sale progressed. It is likely some nice cottages will be erected in this addition. The free lots were drawn by a son of Mr. Ed Sinclair and Mr. Ed Phelps, one each.

W. H. Flowers and Ernest Flowers went to Louisville last week and put their Burley tobacco on the market. They had eighteen hogheads and it sold, the lowest, hoghead bringing $13.50 per hundred and the highest $14.50.

All who are contemplating buying an automobile, should see the Little Overland 4, before buying. I have a demonstrator at my Garage. Call and see this car.

G. M. Stevenson.

Born, to the wife of Ben Jeffries, Huntington, W. Va., a daughter, Marguerite Omeira.

A negro speaker, is filling several appointments in Adair county in the interest of Republican party.

Be at the Polls.

This is our last adomation to the Democrats of Adair county, before the election which takes place next Tuesday. The Republicans are moving rapidly over the county in an effort to bring out their full strength. They are claiming the county by a larger majority than they got last November, and they will accomplish their purpose if Democrats refuse to vote. If a Democrat fails to vote for the ticket, his action gives the Republicans a half vote. There is but one way to aid your party in this election, the most important one for years. If you believe in Democratic principles and want to live under a Democratic Governor, go to the election and vote for Jas. D. Black and the entire ticket running with him.

Attention Farmers.

Wanted, Geese and Ducks. We want 2000 head of Geese and Ducks by Nov. 5, 1919. It will pay you to get in touch with us or one of our Buyers, viz: Alvin Burton, W. R. Taylor, Ray Strange, J. C. Reese, Frodge and Reese and Luther England for Columbia delivery, C. C. Taylor for Russell Springs delivery.

Yours truly,

Married Sunday.

Last Sunday afternoon Miss Edie Conover, sister of John and Mont. Conover, and Mr. Jas. Grasham drove to the residence of Eld. Z. T. Williams where they were United in marriage. The bride is a niece of Eld. Z. T. Williams and is one of Adair county's best young women. The groom is an industrious farmer and stands high among his many friends.

take Notice.

I will not receive grain for sorghum at my mill after November 1st.

L. Akin.

Mr. J. D. Todd was a very familiar figure at the speaking. About eight months ago he returned from Taylor county to Adair, and from now on he will be a worker in every election for the Democratic party. If there is any disaffection in his precinct, Jim will learn of it and smooth matters before the election.

Mrs. Daisy Hamlett has purchased the property, on Burksville street, where she resides from Dr. James Taylor. The consideration is private. This is one of the best homes in Columbia.

Sam Burdette sold 24 mules in Albany, last Saturday. They brought from $75.00 to $175 per head.

Communion services at Union next Sunday. Other important Church matters will come up.

Vote early and vote the Democratic ticket.

Shower for Mrs. Fred Hill.

Mrs. Sam Burdette delightfully entertained a number of her friends Saturday afternoon.

The occasion was a kitchen shower for Mrs. Fred Hill.

A very pleasing contest was introduced in which the names of kitchen articles played a prominent part. The prize was won by Miss Lillian Burdette, of Lebanon.

The gifts were presented from a large dish pan to Mrs. Hill, rhymes being made by the donors, the recipient also replying in rhyme. A delicious salad course was served.

The following were present: Mesdames G. R. Reed, E. B. Barger, Edgar Reed, Edwin Cravens, Paul Hughes, Fred Hill, Mrs. Lena Pauli; Misses Vic Hughes, Leonora Lowe, Lillian Burdette and Katie Murrell.

For Sale.

We have about 250 or 300 bbl. of corn. All kinds of fodder. Call on John D. Turner, on C. S. Harris farm, or S. H. Kassem, near Neat's Store.

We were sorry to learn that Mr. John R. Luttrell, a substantial friend of this paper, and a hustling business man of Font Hill, Russell county, lost his spoke factory and about a thousand dollars worth of spokes by fire recently. His total loss was about five thousand dollars. Mr. Luttrell did just like friends expected he would do. As soon as the smoke cleared away he went to Cincinnati and purchased new machinery, and in a few days the familiar whistle will be heard in the same place of business.

Notice.

The sale advertised by Cortez and L. M. Sanders for Oct. 23, was postponed on account of rain until Saturday Nov. 1, 1919, upon that date we will offer to the highest and best bidder. The following described property.

10 head of choice mare mules, well mated. 2 pair coming 3 year old. 3 pair coming 2 year old, 2 well bred jennets with white points.

One of these Jennets has a sorrel Jack colt three months old. One good yearling Jack, black with white points, 3 milch cows some one and two year old heifers. About 50 barrels of corn. About 6 pounds of hay. some farming tools consisting of turning plows, double shovels, wheat drill, cultivator, farm wagon etc.

Cortez & L. M. Sanders.

The pole climbing contest, put on by Henry Realty Company, last Saturday afternoon, furnished quite a lot of amusement. A greased pole was planted upon the public square and a five dollar bill pinned at the top, the one who would climb the pole and get it, it would be his. Quite a number made an effort, but when they had reached half way up they would slide to the ground. Finally Marvin Young came forward, went to the top and got the bill, amid the shouts of the crowd.

Don't Worry.

Don't wear your old hat when you can buy a new one for half the price of one made over. Call and I will surprise you with my line and prices.

Miss Julia Eubank.

Beginning November 2, the Red Cross drive will start in the United States. Local workers in Adair county will be busy for a week, the length of the drive.

Our paper will not be published next week until Wednesday, as we will want to give the result of the election in the next issue.

J. B. Barbee sold fifteen Jersey cows at Russell Springs, last Saturday at an average of $80.00 per head.

A colored man spoke at the court house Saturday night, in the interest of the Republican State ticket.

Vote for the Amendment.

Next Tuesday the voters of Adair county, Democrats and Republicans will be given an opportunity to vote for or against a constitutional amendment to the State Constitution. If you want the sale and manufacture of ardent spirits forever barred from the State of Kentucky vote "yes" on the proposition. A Federal amendment has already become a law, but some time in the future that amendment might be repealed, but if Kentucky votes to amend her constitution, we will have the question settled so far as this State is concerned. Therefore, let every voter when he enters his booth call for a ballot on the "amendment and vote 'yes' on the proposition. When whiskey is forever barred from Commonwealth the State will become more progressive, and will blossom and bloom as the rose. Every Kentuckian owes to the rising generation the vote, "yes."

Ladies.

Entire new line of midwinter millinery ready for your inspection Thursday, Oct. 30th, with a guarantee that the prices and styles will suit each and every one. Call and see them.

Miss Julia Eubank.

Successful Operation.

Miss Mary Miller, of this place, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. P. Miller, who has been bothered with goiter on her neck for several years, had it removed in St. Anthony Hospital, Louisville, last week. Her mother, father, and brother, Dr. O. P. Miller and wife, were with her in the city.

Her many friends will be glad to learn that the operation was successful, and in a very short time she will be able to return home.

Large audiences are attending the services at the Christian church. Ed. Gordon Bennett is delivering interesting sermons and the song service is very inspiring. The meeting will continue through this week, and if the interests demands, it may go into another week. Eld. Bennett is not a stranger in this community, having been in meetings heretofore in this place, and he is very much liked.

Hats, Hats, Hats.

Ten dozen new shapes in assorted colors and styles. Come and see them. All the new novelties in Trimmings.
Miss Julia Eubank.

W. D. Bradshaw, a well known stock dealer of Georgetown, a native of Adair county, reached Columbia last Friday. A day or two before arriving here he bought 84 head of cattle from Hobson & Pendleton, Greensburg, in Marion county he bought 74 head and in Adair county he purchased 33 head. He paid for the above $9.50 to $10.50 per hundred. The cattle were shipped to Georgetown.

The buildings at Lindsey-Wilson have been greatly improved inside and out. The dormitories have been repainted and new furniture has taken place of the old, making rooms as comfortable as well kept homes. The buildings are also well watered, and the drinking water is as fine as ever came from under the earth.

Hon. Clem Huggins will speak in Columbia next Monday in the interest of the Democratic ticket. He is one of the best speakers in the State, and he has an interesting story to tell. You can not afford to miss hearing this gifted speaker.

We learn that the new bank at Cane Valley will open sometime during the coming month. Preparations are being rapidly made, looking to that end. Mr. Demois Eubank, an excellent business man, will be the cashier, and Mr. Leslie Tipton, an influential farmer, will be the President.

All Democrats should vote and see their neighbor Democrats do likewise.
